FASHION MUST-HAVES FOR SPRING

ALEXANDER MCQUEEN CLUTCH

Details The Faithful Glove clutch is also available in black, blue and red, but this version comes in black snakeskin with a detachable glove in white nappa studded with crystals.

Why is it a must-buy? A clutch is, of course, essential for glamorous evenings and McQueen's is a standout with its bold, whimsical black-and-white contrast and sparkling embellishment. And with the designer's tragic demise, it promises to be a collector's item.

NICHOLAS KIRKWOOD HEELS

Details These strappy X-front platforms from London-based shoe designer Nicholas Kirkwood come in calf leather and snakeskin. They feature a peep toe and a high stiletto heel.

Why are they must-buys? Nicholas Kirkwood is a niche label popular among fashion editors and the style Hypen savvy set. His signature sculptural platform shoes featuring strong, clean lines and luxurious materials are designed for modern women with confidence and a bit of a rock-and-roll attitude. The colours of pink, beige and brown are perfect for spring.

PHILLIP LIM LACE DRESS

Details Phillip Lim's Compilation dress comes in ivory-coloured lace tiered with abstract cubist sculptural organza applique.

Why is it a must-buy? It features soft colour tones and lace – two of spring's key trends. New York-based Lim is known for creating feminine yet individual pieces with unexpected details. Inspired by Picasso's late paintings, he breaks new ground by incorporating abstract cubism into his spring frocks. The dash of black adds dimension and visual impact to the interesting silhouette.
