Power OF A WOMAN

Fierce fashion statements making beauty and an attitude men can't resist

Lindsay Edwards

Accessories buyer at On Pedder

Trust Edwards to know what's on the cutting edge of style. Before joining On Pedder in Hong Kong almost two years ago, this petite Briton worked with elusive stylemaker Rei Kawakubo, with stints at Comme des Garçons in Paris and London's Dover Street Market.

CURRENT FAVES

- Beaded clutch by Dries Van Noten. "The fabrics are always so beautiful with the beading. It's an outfit all by itself."
- Sunglasses by Matthew Williamson. "I like the '70s retro style."
- Criss-cross bracelet by Tom Binns. "You can wear this for evening or day. I'm just a huge Tom Binns fan."

ON REI...

"Rei [Kawakubo] is brilliant. The way she can articulate her ideas and concepts through clothing is genius."

LOVES

- Comme des Garçons, Undercover, Yohji Yamamoto. "I really love Japanese brands and try to go to Tokyo as often as I can."
- Shoes by Alaïa. "They're comfortable yet sexy and always 'wow.'"
- Rococo and Baroque architectural styles
- Karaoke
- Horror films. "Especially Japanese and Korean horror movies like The Tale of Two Sisters and the original The Grudge. I also like The Shining and The Omen."

MUST-HAVE SCENT

Sequoia eau de toilette by Comme des Garçons.

Les Invalides in Paris is an icon of Baroque architecture

FALL MUST-HAVES

- Any bag from Givenchy. "They're all fantastic."
- Oversize rings from Rings Eclectic, "a jewellery brand I'm introducing at On Pedder next season."
- Shoes from Yves Saint Laurent. "Any of them."
- Sunglasses from Balenciaga.

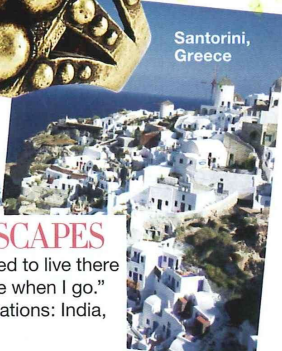

GREATESCAPES

- Greece. "I used to live there so I feel at home when I go."
- Dream destinations: India, Vietnam, Brazil

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

Santorini, Greece

"Since I was 18, I knew that I was going to be in fashion. I read magazines religiously and was fascinated by the idea of the catwalk and the buzz of it all. I still am!"
